Rita McClure
March 2010

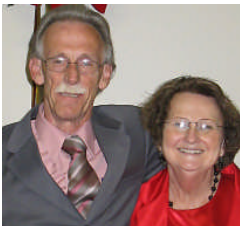

My time here in the States seems as if it is flying by so quickly! Or could it be the busy schedule I am keeping that makes me think I am passing myself so often. The warm welcome, love, and care I have received from all of the churches I have been visiting has been a good medicine to my soul. I find that laughter, kindness, and sharing God's love builds us up. Laughter is a sweet medicine to our soul if we will allow it to be a part of our day.

Another good medicine to me has been my three year old grandson. I find that I love to hang out with him. Why? Because he is so bubbly and he makes me laugh. He is always smiling, always jolly, always thinking that his "Nana" is the best. Never condemns, or speaks downcast words. That brings a spirit of happiness in me and a smile upon my face. Also, I found it builds my inner spirit. Not only that, but it gives me hope! Hope for a great and wonderful day! (Lauren, you are in school and our time is limited but you are always a lifter of "nana's" spirit.)

I find myself thinking, "Why aren't we as adults more like a little child as we get older?" My desire is to look at life with anticipation. Each day, no matter what we are facing, we need to continue to look at God with a smile and allow His Word to infuse us with His life. His life was that of peacefulness, joy, and completeness in the Holy Ghost. Fullness in Him will give us laughter, joy, and hope to be what we need to be for Jesus each and every day. My prayer as I continue down this path God has placed my feet on is to be a better servant. That is "manifesting His life" within this earthly vessel each day. As I do that, His life can flow out from me into others I meet and become contagious. Then others will begin to feel better and more peaceful as we share the peace of Jesus. May we all take a look deep within. Are we truly sharing the life of Christ positively unto others around us each day? Do others see Jesus' life being manifested through us!

1 John 1: 1-4; speaks of the "Word of Life" being manifested within us. We have seen and handled it from the beginning. I thought about that and it has caused me to wonder about my spiritual life. I have asked myself, "Rita, how are you effectively handling the very life of Christ that lives within you? Do others see him in you? Do you offer kindness, love, joy, peace, and a helping hand to others in need each day?" Recently, I feel strongly that this is something we all need to think about. Soon and very soon Jesus is coming back and we must be ready. Will He find us about His business or doing our own thing?

Many people have told me this year that I seem more alive. I made a decision to allow the "Word of Life" to lift me from within so that it will flow into others I may meet. He desires that we all catch a vision and look within and ask ourselves, "How am I affecting those around me?"

A Very Special Thanks to Pastor Gene and Sherri Throop:

I want to take a moment for a very special thanks to Pastor Gene and Sherri Throop for their kindness during my stay with them. Each month Pastor Gene and Mrs. Sherri willingly work behind the scenes to make sure all their missionaries funding, newsletters, and financial accountability is handled well. Never do they say anything about all the hours they put into caring for me and our ministry needs. They also have other missionaries in Zambia and Kenya. Plus, they pastor a church in Indiana, "Victory Worship Center," where they diligently take care of the needs of their flock. I want to personally express my love and thanks to them for loving Jesus and allowing HIS love to flow through them to bless others. Each month "Calvary Ministries Outreach" pays from their own ministry all fees and printing cost to make sure our newsletters are sent out to everyone on our list. Never do they take a fee from any of our donations sent to us. We get 100% of our funds. For this, I want to say THANK YOU!

Thank you for everything you have done the last 12 years to make sure my stay on the mission field is pleasurable and at ease from concerns. Thanks for your love and care! Also, thank you for paying for my airline ticket to Indiana and for the love offering “Victory Worship Center” gave toward our ministry. You both are indeed a blessing from God! May God continue to bless you richly! I love you both!

Please note that I recognize your sacrifice each month to give in these hard times we are experiencing. Nevertheless, you have continued to faithfully give so that God's work can go forward. Remember God sees your gift of scarfrice and HE will keep you when all around looks like it may be folding. Why will He keep you? Because you give ungrudging! You give with a pure and true heart as He has placed it within you. He says, “Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure that ye measure it shall be measured to you again.” Luke 6:38
God bless you as you continue to faithfully serve HIM!
